

GIOVANNI VAN EMPEL

Centre for Health Economics, Monash University
giovanni.empel@monash.edu

EDUCATION

Monash University, Australia PhD in Health Economics	2020 - Present
Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia Medical Doctor (MD.)	2016 - 2018
University of York, UK MSc. in Health Economics (with Distinction)	2014 - 2015
Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia BSc in Medical Science	2008 - 2013

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Applied Microeconomics, Health Economics, Development Economics, Labour Economics

RESEARCH

Publication

Undertesting of COVID-19 in Indonesia: what has gone wrong? (with Joko Mulyanto, Bayu Wiratama)
Journal of Global Health, December 2020

Working Papers

Promoting Vaccination Take-up at the Last Mile: Evidence from a Randomized Controlled Trial in Rural Indonesia (with Armand Sim, Asad Islam, Gita Kusnadi, Jahen Rezki, Michael Vlassopoulos, and Yves Zenou) Under review

Does quality affect choice of family physician? Evidence from patients changing general practice without changing their address (with Hugh Gravelle and Rita Santos) Revise and resubmit : Economic Modelling

Work in progress

Provider responses to market entry under competing health technologies (with Daniel Avdic, Nils Gutacker and Johan Vikstrom) Preliminary draft

Radiating knowledge? Peer effects among physicians (with Daniel Avdic, Umair Khalil, and Johannes Kunz) Preliminary draft

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Health Economics (MED4100) Undergraduate level	2020, 2021, 2022
Introduction to Health Economics (HEC5970) Postgraduate level	2021, 2022

AWARDS AND GRANTS

- 2022, J-PAL SEA-LPEM RCT Fund, with Armand Sim , Asad Islam, and Jahen Rezki (US$39,000)
- 2022, Monash Business School: Purple Letter of Teaching Achievement

2020, BPJS Kesehatan Research Fund, with Jarir At-thobari, Firdaus Hafidz (US$40,000)
2020-present, Monash International Tuition Scholarship
2020-present, Monash Graduate Scholarship
2019, 2nd Asian Workshop on Econometrics and Health Economics Travel Grant
2017, iHEA World Congress Travel Grant

SEMINARS, CONFERENCES, AND WORKSHOPS

2023

ASHEcon 2023 (Scheduled), UK Health Economics Study Group (Scheduled)

2022

ANU Postgraduate Workshop (accepted, not presented)

2021

Melbourne Institute Brown Bag, UK Health Economics Study Group (UK HESG), University of York (Health, Econometrics, and Data Group), iHEA World Congress, Australian Health Economics Society (AHES)

2019

2nd Asian Workshop on Econometrics and Health Economics

2017

iHEA World Congress

REFERENCE

1. A/Prof Daniel Avdic

Department of Economics, Deakin University
d.avdic@deakin.edu.au

2. Dr. Umair Khalil

Centre for Development Economics and Sustainability, Monash University
umair.khalil@monash.edu

3. Dr. Johannes Kunz

Centre for Health Economics, Monash University
johannes.kunz@monash.edu